

suitable skills and attitude to participate in this event.

Hint – we are not looking for your academic publication or research track record, but rather how you might approach cross-disciplinary problems in this area and the workshop.

(Guide: 100 words each)

a. What is your personal experience of working with people in teams

b. How would you describe your ability to explain your research to non-experts?

c. The workshop will be especially suited to individuals who are willing to step outside their particular area of interest or expertise, who are positively driven, who can think innovatively and who can settle in easily in the company of strangers. How well do you see yourself fitting in?

d. What do you hope you would personally gain from participating in this workshop?

NB Applications should be no longer than 2 sides